📖 Story: The Lost Baby Elephant

Poor baby Appu! Where is his mother?

Near the river lived a baby elephant named Appu. One day Appu ran after a butterfly — hop, hop, hop! — and when he stopped, the jungle was quiet. “Amma?” he called. “Ammaaa!” Only his echo came back. Big tears rolled down his cheeks.

Kavin Do not cry, Appu. We will help you find your mother!

Meena Monkey saw her near the banana trees. Parrot heard her trumpet — paaaarp! — by the big rock!

Arun Follow the big footprints, Appu. One, two, three — this way!

They walked and walked — until PAARP! Mother Elephant came running through the trees! Appu ran to her, and she wrapped her trunk around him. “Thank you, kind friends!” she trumpeted happily.

💜 MORAL OF THE STORY: Be kind to animals. Help anyone who is lost — big or small!
